Tell us a bit about yourself.

I am a therapist and Licensed Clinical Social Worker. I am originally from New York City. I received my master's degree in Social Work from Smith College School for Social Work and graduated with a Bachelors of Arts in Africana Studies from Wellesley College. I have spent most of the past decade of my career working in mental health providing psychotherapy, case management, and mental health advocacy services at various clinical settings.

What interests you about working with CBCSA students?

I am interested in working with CBCSA students because I would like the opportunity to get to know them more individually. I would also like to support CBCSA students with some of the amazing community engagement and leadership projects they are involved with.

Do you have a favorite quote that keeps you motivated?

“Hold fast to dreams, for if dreams die, life is like a broken-winged bird that cannot fly.” - Langston Hughes

What do you do to de-stress?

I enjoy traveling, spending time with family, meditating, karaoke, and going for walks with my rescue dog.
