

Mary Weber, LMFT

LGBTQ+ Resource Center

Tell us a bit about yourself.

My name is Mary Weber, I am a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. I am originally from North Carolina. Before going back to school to be a therapist I worked with children in a number of different settings -- from directing after school care program to being a residential counselor at a children's home. Before coming to USC, I worked at the Counseling Center at The Claremont colleges for about seven years and served as a liaison to the Queer Resource Center.

What interests you about working with LGBTQ+ Resource Center students?

As someone who is Queer/Bisexual, I find it very rewarding to be able to serve my community in this role. I work from a person centered, strength-based approach and think that my clients are the experts on their lives and lived experience.

The LGBTQ+ Community encompasses a large and diverse community, and it is my commitment to always work to improve my own knowledge and competency and to work for ways to advocate and to be an ally for the entire community.

Do you have a favorite quote that keeps you motivated?

“We Delight In The Beauty Of The Butterfly, But Rarely Admit The Changes It Has Gone Through To Achieve That Beauty.” – Maya Angelou

What do you do to de-stress?

I like to play with my toy poodle Ella, take walks, go to the beach, spend time with friends, and watch British murder mysteries.
